A total of 295 players entered the $500 No-Limit Hold'em event in the 2010 Foxwoods Poker Classic with a total prize pool of $125,906 on the line, Chris Barnes started the final table in the fourth position only to grind it out to secure the victory. The final table took over five hours before Chris, a resident of Raynham, MA captured the Commemorative Leather Jacket, the Championship Trophy, and the First Place prize of $32,799!

The final table was reached at 1am early Tuesday morning and returned later at Noon to resume play. Within thirty minutes Ron Cascone of Stratford, CT raised all-in with 7c8c and was quickly called by Ryan Eriquezzo with pocket A's. The flop (QdKdJd) left Ryan in charge and Ron with little hope as the 6c5d completed the board, and relegated Ron to 10th, earning $2,077 for his efforts. Another half hour would pass before Daniel Becker would move all-in with his last 58k, with Kh9s after the flop of QhQs10h. He was called by Sean D'Acci with 9h3h for the flush draw. The Ah completed the flush for Sean and with no help on the river (3s), Dan would finish in 9th place, taking $2,654 back home to Norton, MA. A couple of hands later, Daniel Degray moved all-in with 38k after Sean had raised to 30k and Ryan had called. Sean and Ryan called the 38k and the flop came out 9c4h3s. Ryan bet 24k, and Sean folded. Dan showed As6s to Ryan's pocket 9's for the set. The 6h and Ac to complete the board left Dan, a resident of Agawam, MA with $3,903 for 8th. Vinny Pahuja, who came to the final table as the short stack, managed to hold on until he pushed his last 85k with pocket 5's only to be called by Marc D'Amico with pocket J's. The board (3s7h9c7dJc) couldn't rescue Vinny leaving him with a hard fought 7th place finish and a $5,162 payday to take back home to New York, NY. The next eliminating hand had Sean D'Acci of East Taunton, MA raising all-in to 91k before the flop with 9s10s and was called by Chris who was already in for 25k. Chris showed Ad5d, and after the board (4h4cQh2c6s) missed both players. Chris' Ace high held-up and resigned Sean to 6th for $6,547.

Down to five players and the blinds now at 6K/12K, Bill McNamera, of Fairfield, CT, pushed his last 140k in with As10d. He was called by Chris with AdKh. The QdJd9h gave each player a straight draw which Chris hit with the 10s on the turn. The 3d on the river ended Bill's run with a 5th place finish and $7,932 to show for his efforts. Next to leave was Marc D'Amico who moved all-in with his last 131k. He was called by Ryan who showed Ac3c to Marc's 10c2c. The board of 3h8h9s2hJh gave Ryan, 3's and left Marc to settle for 4th and $9,317 to take back home to Plainville, CT. The next player to leave, after doubling-up Ben Klier a couple of hands earlier, would be Ryan Eriquezzo of Danbury, CT. Ryan pushed all-in with his last 201k with Jc10s. Chris would call with AcJs and would watch the flop (8h2dAd) virtually close the door on Ryan. The 7s8s to finish would leave Ryan with a strong 3rd place finish and $10,702.

The final two players started heads-up action with comparable chip stacks, and kept it close for over an hour, until Chris finally picked-up a couple of sizable pots to build a solid 3 to 1 advantage. Ben held on for another half an hour when Chris would raise preflop to 60k with the blinds at 12K/24K. Ben raised another 110k with Chris calling. After the Kd7c2c flop, Chris moved all-in with his last 220k and was quickly called by Chris who showed Kc3c for top pair and a flush draw. Ben Klier of Versailles, KY showed Ad3s and watched the 8s10h complete the board and end the event with Ben earning $17,627 for 2nd. Chris Barnes would become the 2010 Foxwoods Poker Classic $500 No-Limit Champion collecting the Championship Trophy, Commemorative Leather Jacket and $32,799.
