Neal Friets- 1st!

Tom Lukowicz- 2nd!

366 players anted up $600 for the 2007 Foxwoods World Poker Finals Seniors No-Limit Championship. A prize pool of $188,161 was up for grabs and when the final nine came back to play on Saturday, the remaining prize pool was at $141,130. The remaining nine gentlemen based on chip counts were Neal Friets, of Keene, NH, Thomas Lukowicz, of Meriden, CT, Paul Giliberto, of Newington, CT, Robert Napoli, Norwell, MA, Andrew Levine, of Cambridge, MA, Dale Phillips, of Naples, FL, Robert Raimondi, of Milton, MA, John Andrews, of Boothbay Harbor, ME, and David George, of Barton, VT.

The nine finalists negotiated an equitable gentleman's agreement on distributing the remaining prize pool and were able to enjoy the day without having to play a single hand. As part of the agreement Neal Friets, the chip leader took home the Championship Trophy, while Tom Lukowicz, received the commemorative leather jacket for his 2nd place chip stack.

Congratulations to all winners on an excellent Excellent Seniors Championship.
